

Sing All Ye Joyful

An Elven song from The Hobbit

Lyrics by J.R.R. Tolkien
Music by T.Q. Townsend

C G D G C

1. Sing all ye joy - ful, now sing all to - geth - er! The wind's in the
2. Dance all ye joy - ful, now dance all to - geth - er! _____ Soft is the
3. Sing we now soft - ly, and dreams let us weave him! _____ Wind him in
4. Sigh no more Pine, till the wind of the morn! _____ Fall -

6

G D G C G Em

tree - top the wind's in the heath - er; The stars are in bloss - om, the moon is in grass, and let foot be like feath - er! The riv - er is sil - ver, the shad - ows are slum - ber and there let us leave him! The wan - der - er sleep - eth. Now soft be his Moon! - Dark be the land! _____ Hush! _____ Hush! _____ Oak, Ash, and 12

Bm C G C D G

flower, and bright are the wind - ows of Night in her tower.
fleeting; _____ Mer - ry is May - time and mer - ry our meeting.
pill - ow! Lul - la - by! Lul - la - by! Al - der and Willow!
Thorn! _____ Hushed be all wa - ter, till dawn is at hand!